3.0 Governance

3.1 Philosophy of Governance

Governance at UUCB is characterized by clarity, competence, and accountability. By governing in a strategic way, the Board makes it possible for paid and volunteer staff to create, maintain, and monitor the programs by which we as a people gather, by which we inspire spiritual development, and by which we transform ourselves so as to heal, help, and bless the larger world.

3.1.1 Clarity

Clarity refers to our obligation to provide a clear, thoughtful, and thorough allocation of authority, responsibility, and accountability for all work done on behalf of the Church. Therefore,

The Board will hold itself accountable and make policy decisions as a body for the benefit of the Church as a whole.

The Board will hear the voices of all Trustees, work toward consensus, acknowledge differences and dissent, and reach decisions by voting.

The Board will support decisions once they are made and communicate them as one voice.

The Board will make readily accessible its record of decisions concerning governance policies and procedures.

3.1.2 Competence

Competence refers to our obligation to provide a collective sense of excellence, achievable because each individual Board member makes a commitment to be a responsible partner in the process of governing. Each individual brings his/her gifts in a spirit of positive and constructive service to benefit the Church as a whole. Therefore,

The Board will focus its energy on the core Board roles of fiduciary oversight, policy creation, delegation of authority, and evaluation of outcomes.

The Board will exercise discipline that assures parity among Board members.

The Board will engage in a fair and responsive process of decision-making.

3.1.3 Accountability

Accountability refers to our obligation to provide a structure that enables work toward identifiable outcomes clearly related to the mission of the Church. Therefore,

The Board will operate in a strategic manner which focuses on outcomes, with an emphasis on setting goals in keeping with the mission and envisioning the future life of the Church as a whole.

The Board will establish clear distinctions between its work and that of staff.

The Board will monitor and evaluate staff performance, as well as its own functioning.

The Board will evaluate the role of Church activities within the overall mission and strategic direction that it sets.

3.2 Nomination and Election of Trustees

The Congregational Nominating Committee will be composed of seven voting members of the Congregation. Initially, three members will be elected for three years, two for two years, and two for one year. Thereafter, all members will be elected for three year terms. Affirmed by the Board of Trustees, May 21, 2014

3.4.3 Board Consent Agenda

The Agenda for a regular or special meeting of the Board of Trustees shall be prepared by the President of the Board, in consultation with the Executive Committee (Board officers, Minister, Church Administrator). A Board member may request that an item be removed from the Consent Agenda and placed on the Active Agenda for discussion or action and, in that case, the remaining Consent Agenda items may be approved or accepted.

Affirmed by the Board of Trustees, September 11, 2013

3.4.4 Board Advisory Committee and Task Force Structure

The Board establishes Advisory Committees and Task Forces to support the Trustees in their work. The Advisory Committees and Task Forces enable the Board to develop procedures for monitoring and providing oversight for its own functions as well as for those of the paid and volunteer staff and Ministry Teams of the Church. Advisory Committees and Task Forces established by the Board may, or may not, include one or more Trustees as voting members as appropriate. The Board will appoint the Chairperson of each Advisory Committee and Task Force and affirm Advisory Committee and Task Force members.

Advisory Committee and Task Force members may be recruited by the Board, by the Advisory Committee or Task Force Chairperson, by the Minister, as well as by other members of the congregation. Voting members of Advisory Committees and Task Forces must be members of the Church. Individuals who are not members of the Church may participate in a non-voting capacity. Any Board Advisory Committee or Task Force Chair can invite a current member or members of the Board of Trustees to participate ex-officio (in an advisory, non-voting capacity) in the Advisory Committee's or Task Force's meetings.

To care for the health and vitality of Advisory Committees and Task Forces, voting and non-voting members may serve for a maximum of six consecutive years on any one Advisory Committee or Task Force. Two years must elapse since his or her consecutive years of service before he or she will be eligible to serve on the same Advisory Committee or Task Force. The Board will affirm replacements for any vacancies that may occur.

All of the Board Advisory Committees' efforts result in recommendations to the Trustees so they can be adequately prepared to create policies and accomplish tasks that are within the Board's exclusive authority. In making such recommendations, Board Advisory Committees provide any assistance requested by the Trustees so they may fulfill their fiduciary responsibilities and create strategic direction for the congregation. In some instances, the Board may take specific action to fulfill its duties; in other instances, the Board will create policies that authorize other professional and volunteer staff to perform particular ministry functions. The Trustees' actions and policies enable those who are carrying out the ministry of the Church to see clearly how their performances fulfill the mission and desired outcomes that are then in effect. They also enable members and outsiders alike to see clearly how the mission of the Church is being executed among us and in the wider world.

3.4.5 Conflict of Interest: Trustees and Advisory Committee and Task Force Members

1. Purpose.

The purpose of the conflict of interest policy is to protect the Unitarian Universalist Church of Buffalo's (the "Corporation") interest when it is contemplating entering into a Related Party Transaction, or other transaction or arrangement that might benefit the private interest of an officer, trustee, or Key Employee or might result in a possible excess benefit transaction. This policy supplements but does not replace any other applicable state and federal laws governing conflicts of interest applicable to the Corporation.

2. Definitions.

"Interested Person": An Interested Person is any (i) Related Party or (ii) any trustee, officer, Key Employee or member of a committee with Board-delegated powers, who has a direct or indirect Financial Interest, or who has any other interest or relationship that could reasonably be viewed as having the potential to affect his or her decision—making judgment.

"Financial Interest": A person has a financial interest if the person has directly or indirectly, through business, investment, or family:

an ownership or investment interest in any entity with which the Corporation has a transaction or arrangement, a compensation arrangement with the Corporation or with any entity or individual with which the Corporation has a transaction or arrangement, or a potential ownership or investment interest in, or compensation arrangement with, any entity or individual with which the Corporation is negotiating a transaction or arrangement.

"Compensation" includes direct and indirect remuneration as well as gifts or favors that are not insubstantial.

A "Conflict of Interest" shall exist (i) when an Interested Person has a Financial Interest in a proposed transaction, or (ii) with respect to all proposed Related Party Transactions.

"Deciding Body" means the Audit Committee, if any, and otherwise the independent trustees of the Board or another committee of the Board comprised solely of independent trustees. The term "independent trustee" shall have the same meaning as "independent director" in Section 102 of the New York Not-for-Profit Corporation Law.

A "Relative" of an individual means his or her (i) spouse, ancestors, brothers and sisters (whether whole or half blood), children (whether natural or adopted), grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and spouses of brothers, sisters, children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren; or (ii) domestic partner as defined in Section 2994-a of the New York Public Health Law, or any successor statute.

"Related Party" means (i) any trustee, officer or Key Employee of the Corporation or any affiliate of the Corporation; (ii) any Relative of any trustee, officer or Key Employee of the Corporation or any affiliate of the Corporation; or (iii) any entity in which an individual described in clauses (i) and (ii) has a thirty-five percent or greater ownership or beneficial interest or, in the case of a partnership or professional corporation, a direct or indirect ownership interest in excess of five percent.

"Related Party Transaction" means any transaction, agreement or any other arrangement in which a Related Party has a Financial Interest and in which the Corporation or any affiliate of the Corporation is a participant.

"Key Employee" means any person who is in a position to exercise substantial influence over the affairs of the Corporation as referenced in the excess benefit transaction provisions of the Internal Revenue Code and related regulations.

3. Procedures.

Duty to Disclose. In connection with any actual or possible Conflict of Interest, an interested person must disclose the existence of the financial or other interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the Deciding Body.

Determining Whether a Conflict of Interest Exists. After disclosure of the interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the Interested Person, he or she will leave the Deciding Body's meeting while the determination of a Conflict of Interest is discussed and voted upon. The remaining Deciding Body members will decide if a Conflict of Interest exists.

Procedures for Addressing the Conflict of Interest. The Deciding Body will determine by a majority vote of the disinterested trustees whether the transaction or arrangement is in the Corporation's best interest and whether it is fair and reasonable. In conformity with the above determination it will make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement.

Additional Procedures for Addressing Certain Conflicts of Interest. With respect to any Related Party Transaction in which a Related Party has a substantial financial interest, the Deciding Body shall: (i) prior to entering into the transaction, consider alternative transactions to the extent available; (ii) approve the transaction by not less than a majority vote of the trustees or committee members present at the meeting; and (iii) contemporaneously document in writing the basis for the Deciding Body's approval, including its consideration of any alternative transactions.

Unitarian Universalist Church of Buffalo, NY

No Improper Attempts to Influence Vote. The Interested Person with the Conflict of Interest is prohibited from making any attempt to influence improperly the deliberation or voting on the matter giving rise to the Conflict of Interest.

Violations of the Conflicts of Interest Policy. If the Deciding Body has reasonable cause to believe that an individual has failed to disclose actual or possible Conflicts of Interest, it will inform the individual of the basis for such belief and afford the individual an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose. If, after hearing the individual's response and after making further investigation as warranted by the circumstances, the Deciding Body determines the individual has failed to disclose an actual or possible Conflict of Interest, it will take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.

4. Records of Proceedings.

The minutes of the Deciding Body's meeting will contain the names of persons who disclosed or otherwise were found to have a Financial Interest in connection with an actual or possible Conflict of Interest, the nature of the Financial Interest, any action taken to determine whether a conflict of interest was present, the Deciding Body's decision as to whether a Conflict of Interest in fact existed, the names of persons who were present for discussions, the content of the discussion, including any alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement, and a record of any votes taken in connection with the proceedings.

5. Compensation.

Any person (or family member of such person) who receives compensation or other payment, directly or indirectly, from the Corporation is precluded from voting on matters pertaining to his/her compensation or other payment. Trustees who receive compensation, directly or indirectly, from the Corporation may provide information to the Deciding Body regarding compensation.

6. Initial and Annual Statements.

Each trustee shall initially (prior to his or her initial election) and annually thereafter complete, sign and submit to the Secretary of the Corporation a written statement identifying, to the best of his or her knowledge, any entity of which such trustee is an officer, director, trustee, member, owner (either as a sole proprietor or a partner), or employee and with which the Corporation has a relationship, and any transaction in which the Corporation is a participant and in which the trustee might have a Conflict of Interest. The Secretary of the Corporation shall provide a copy of all completed statements to the Chair of the Deciding Body.

7. Periodic Reviews.

To ensure the Corporation operates in a manner consistent with charitable purposes and does not engage in activities that could jeopardize its tax-exempt status, the Board will conduct periodic reviews, including, at a minimum, whether compensation arrangements and benefits are reasonable, based on competent survey information, and the result of arm's length bargaining, and whether any partnerships, joint ventures, and arrangements with management organizations conform to the Corporation's written policies, are properly recorded, reflect reasonable investment or payments for goods and services, further charitable purposes and do not result in inurement, impermissible private benefit or in an excess benefit transaction. The Corporation may, but need not, use outside advisors to assist it in its periodic reviews. If outside advisors are used, their use will not relieve the Board of its responsibility for ensuring periodic reviews are conducted.

Affirmed by the Board of Trustees, March 18, 2015

3.4.6 Discipline and Removal of Board Members

The Board acknowledges that extraordinary circumstances may arise that make it appropriate for a Trustee to be removed from the Board. In some cases illegal or unethical behavior shall provide grounds for removing one or more Trustees from the Board. In other instances, an undisclosed conflict of interest, chronic absence, neglect of duty or a Trustee's obstructive behavior may prevent the Board from functioning effectively.

Members of the Board of Trustees are responsible for complying with the Church Bylaws, Board policies and the Board's covenant and for carrying out other tasks to which they have committed in their roles as Trustees. They must also avoid any activity, decision or organizational circumstance that violates commonly accepted business and professional ethics.

Any Trustee who shall have been absent from three (3) consecutive regular meetings of the Board of Trustees without just cause, as determined by the Board of Trustees, shall automatically vacate his/her seat on the Board. However, the Board shall consider each absence of a Trustee as a separate circumstance and may expressly waive such absence by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Trustees who are present at a regular meeting when the question is decided.

As indicated above, illegal or unethical behavior may also provide grounds for removing a Trustee from the Board. Accordingly, these Board policies prohibit misconduct and dishonesty, which must include but are not limited to:

- a. theft or other misappropriation of assets, including Church assets and assets of any organization or individual with whom the Church has a business relationship;
- b. misstatements and other irregularities in Church records, including the intentional misstatement of the results of Church operations;
- c. forgery or other alteration of documents related to Church operations;
- d. fraud or other similar unlawful acts;
- e. violations of confidentiality; or
- f. any illegal activities reflecting adversely upon the Church's reputation, with the exception that non-violent civil disobedience by a Church member or members who take positions of conscience that are consistent with Unitarian Universalist principles is not prohibited.

Strongly felt disagreements and passionate arguments are often characteristics of the most effective Boards and of genuine debate. Advocating for an unpopular position or viewpoint is not a valid reason for removing a Trustee from the Board. However, if a Trustee consistently disrupts meetings with behavior that contradicts the Board's Covenant or otherwise prevents the Board from performing its duties, removal may be appropriate.

A Trustee may request a leave of absence from the Board, not exceeding six months' duration, based upon health, work-related or other reasons that have created an inability to participate fully during the current term. A Trustee who is granted such a leave can maintain formal membership on the Board but cannot, for example, be included for purposes of determining a quorum.

4.3.2 Access and Inclusion

The Unitarian Universalist Church of Buffalo accepts the sacred challenge to recognize the humanity and gifts of all people. It is our goal that the members of the congregation engage in a process of spiritual development to increase their awareness of and welcoming for all people, including those with disabilities. 4.3.3 Safe Congregation

The Unitarian Universalist Church of Buffalo is committed to creating and maintaining a safe and healthy environment for all. Safe and healthy congregational relationships are created by ensuring and maintaining the ethical integrity of ministerial and lay leader relationships.

The Church supports just actions, self-care, and healing opportunities for the whole congregation. Vulnerable and/or historically marginalized persons are protected through practices of hospitality, effective anti-oppression education, responsible prevention and intervention, and appropriate responses. Elements of the safe congregation include facilities design and use, safe staffing, congregational education and communication, and monitoring.

Affirmed by the Board of Trustees, February 12, 2014

4.3.3.1 Disruptive Behavior

Openness to a wide variety of individuals is one of the prime values held by our congregation. We affirm and promote the inherent worth and dignity of every person. We commit to maintaining a secure atmosphere where openness can exist. When any person's physical and/or emotional well-being or freedom to safely express beliefs or opinions is threatened, we will address the source of this threat firmly and promptly.

Disruptive behavior, as differentiated from a normal give-and-take of ideas in the spirit of democratic debate, involves one or more of the following:

- Danger: Is there a threat or perceived threat to persons or property?
- Interference: Does the behavior interfere with church discussions and activities?
- Offense: Is the behavior likely to alienate congregants or visitors?

The Church has procedures for addressing disruptive behavior both during congregational gatherings and in smaller team or committee meetings or functions. In addition, the Church files and maintains accurate and timely records of complaints as well as actions taken to address and resolve problems.

Only when no other resolution is possible can disruptive behavior result in the expulsion of the offending person or persons.

Affirmed by the Board of Trustees, March 19, 2014

4.3.3.2 Evacuation

In case of fire or other emergency requiring the evacuation of the church, UUCB maintains a written procedure. The procedure describes primary and secondary evacuation routes from all rooms and areas of the church, the expected conduct of classroom teachers and assistants, designated safe meeting places, and designated fire marshals as well as their areas of responsibility.

Affirmed by the Board of Trustees, July 10, 2013

4.3.3.3 Safe Staffing

In order to create a “Safe Congregation” as defined by the UUA, the UUCB maintains procedures that enable the congregation, Trustees, and staff to take reasonable precautions when bringing people into positions of leadership that give them access to vulnerable people. These procedures apply to all paid and volunteer staff who provide pastoral care under the auspices of a Church pastoral care program, have access to sensitive information or vulnerable populations, and teach and/or facilitate programs for children and youth (ages 0—18). We conduct background checks for paid and volunteer staff as required by law and/or in keeping with best business practices.

The provisions of the Manual in general will be consistently applied, but the Church reserves the right to deviate from normal policy in selected situations; therefore, the Manual provides only a general guide. Revisions to the Manual may be made from time-to-time as situations arise, and needs require; therefore, the Church reserves the right to amend, supplement or rescind any of its provisions as appropriate. Employees shall be given written notice when changes are made.

The Personnel Manual applies to all employees, whether full-time, part-time, exempt or non-exempt, salaried or hourly, except where otherwise stated. It does not apply to volunteers, nor to ordained Minister(s) in fellowship with the UUA called by vote of the Congregation.

4.4.2.2 Fair Compensation

The Church strives to maintain fiscal and ethical integrity with respect to employee compensation. Thus, the Church shall fulfill employment agreements in terms of hours of work, wages, and benefits. 4.4.2.3 Freedom from Workplace Harassment

Harassment of any kind is prohibited and will not be tolerated. The Church prohibits conduct directed to its employees that shows hostility or an aversion toward an individual because of race, color, religion, sex, gender identity or expression, sexual or affectional orientation, national origin, age, ability/disability, socio-economic status, education, or spirituality. The Church also prohibits any other classification protected by law, or any other harassment or bullying, whether or not protected by law. Any action that has the purpose or effect of creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work environment; has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance; or otherwise adversely affects an individual's employment opportunities is strictly forbidden. Retaliation against individuals who make a claim of discrimination, or participate in the investigation of such a claim, is prohibited by this policy and will not be tolerated.

Sexual harassment is prohibited and will not be tolerated. This policy applies to sexual harassment by members of the same gender as well as opposite genders. Unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature constitute sexual harassment when submission to the conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of employment.

The aforementioned actions and behaviors are also considered sexual harassment when submission to or rejection of the conduct is used as a factor in employment decisions affecting the individual. The aforementioned actions and behaviors are also considered sexual harassment when the conduct unreasonably interferes with an individual's employment or creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive employment environment.

Affirmed by the Board of Trustees, November 13, 2013

4.4.2.4 Whistleblower Policy

The Church shall protect employees who make any lawful disclosure of information on a matter of Church concern, when they have reason to believe they are reporting a violation of any law, mismanagement, gross waste or misappropriation of Church funds or assets, a substantial and specific danger to public health and safety, or other alleged wrongful conduct. Further, the Church prohibits adverse actions being taken against employees, volunteers, or any Church member in knowing retaliation for such disclosure. Any person found to have so violated this Policy shall be disciplined, up to and including termination from employment or expulsion from membership.

Affirmed by the Board of Trustees, November 13, 2013

4.4.2.5 Conflict of Interest: Paid Staff

This policy reflects the Board's determination to prevent 1) the personal interest of paid staff members from interfering with the performance of their duties to the Church; and 2) such staff members from receiving personal, financial, or professional gain at the expense of the Church, beyond the terms of their employment.

Paid staff members are therefore required to disclose any competing financial, professional or personal obligations or interests that do or might interfere with their ability to perform their required duties in a fair and objective manner.

A conflict of interest is defined as a conflict between the private interests and official responsibilities of a paid staff member. This includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- Financial Interest: receiving personal gifts or loans from third parties dealing or competing with the Church; having any kind of financial interest in any third party dealing with the Church;

4.5.2 Endowment, Special Funds and Capital Reserves

4.5.2.1 Endowment Management, Uses and Withdrawals

The Unitarian Universalist Church of Buffalo invests, manages and uses its Endowment Fund to benefit and sustain the Church now and into the future. This is done by investing to achieve growth in the value of the Fund with moderate risk tolerance, and to provide sustainable distributions as needed to the Church while maintaining the principal value of the Fund. The values of the Church are reflected by engaging in a program of socially responsible investing to the greatest extent possible.

Annual distributions from the Fund to support the Church's operating budget are calculated so as to ensure the ongoing health of the fund. The percentage and amount of a distribution is recommended by the Endowment Advisory Committee based on their understanding of best practices, market conditions and estimated need.

Both annual distributions and any other withdrawals from the Fund to support the programs and facilities of the Church are subject to approval by the Congregation at a regular or special meeting. Annual distributions are approved as part of the approval of the annual budget at the Fall Congregational Meeting.

The Fund is sustained and grown both through investing and through an active program of Planned Giving in the congregation, which is implemented by the Endowment Advisory Committee.

Affirmed by the Board of Trustees, April 9, 2014

4.5.2.2 Funds Established with a Restriction on Use

Following a recommendation from the appropriate Board Advisory Committee, the Board may from time to time authorize the establishment of funds for restricted use. The Board authorizes the establishment of such funds when doing so will facilitate its ability to fulfill its fiduciary responsibilities and to create strategic direction for carrying out the mission of the Church. Once the Board has approved a restricted fund, the Church Administrator reports its receipts routinely.

Upon the establishment of any such funds, the Board shall review the purpose of the fund, the sources of the fund, the process by which withdrawals will be authorized, the identity of those with authority to approve withdrawals, the circumstances under which the fund can be dissolved, and the subsequent disposition of any remaining assets. The disposition of remaining funds must be made in compliance with federal, state, and local law governing charitable institutions.

The dates of inception and dissolution shall be recorded as part of the accounting record of the fund. For any such funds, the Board requires the relevant information in the following format:

4.5.2.3 Capital Reserve

Until the Board recommends otherwise, the Church allocates a minimum of $10,000 from the operating budget each year into a Capital Reserve fund (a fund for restricted use) which is to be used to maintain the fixed assets of the Church. Affirmed by the Board of Trustees, May 21, 2014

4.5.2.4 Acceptance of Gifts and Awards from Granting Agencies

This gift acceptance policy provides guidelines to representatives of the Church who advise the Board about accepting gifts, to outside advisors assisting in the gift planning process, and to prospective donors wishing to make gifts to the Church. This policy will apply to all gifts including, but not limited to, restricted and unrestricted gifts and memorials, and to all awards from Granting Agencies. For purposes of this policy, pledges designated as "restricted for Church use only" are considered as unrestricted.

In general, the Board of Trustees supports the principle that gifts to the Church should be unrestricted and without conditions. The Board of Trustees reserves the right to decline any gift that is inconsistent with the mission of the Church or its tax exempt status, that would create an administrative burden, or that causes the Church to incur excessive expenses. The Board shall have the ultimate authority to make decisions regarding the acceptance of gifts and of awards from Granting Agencies.

Annual or ongoing pledge donations from church members and regular collection plate donations may be processed routinely by the church's office staff without formal Board acceptance. In the case of gifts of cash or check designed for a specific use, a separate restricted fund is to be established, per policy 4.5.2.2 above. Until such time as the Board accepts the restricted gift, the money will be placed in a "suspension" line item. If the Board does not accept the gift, the donor will be given the option to authorize it to be deposited into the general operating fund, to authorize it to be deposited into an established fund for a restricted use, or receive a refund of the proposed gift.

Types of Gifts and Awards from Granting Agencies to the Church That Require Board Acceptance

1) Cash donations designated for other Church purposes and checks made payable to the Church for purposes other than plate or pledge donations require Board acceptance. In routine cases, including donations to support Board-approved expenditures, the Church Administrator will inform the Board of the gift and how it will be spent in accordance with Board approved expenditures, including items in the approved budget. However, if it seems appropriate, the Church Administrator may consult the Minister, another staff person, or a Board Advisory Committee about whether to accept the gift.

2) Other gifts to the Church and awards from Granting Agencies that only the Board may accept include, but may not be limited to, the following:

- a) readily marketable securities, such as those traded on a stock exchange;
- b) closely-held securities;
- c) real estate;
- d) life insurance;
- e) tangible personal property of a value exceeding $1000;
- f) deferred gifts, including charitable gift annuities, pooled income funds, charitable remainder trusts ' charitable lead trusts, bequests, retained life estate, and gifts of retirement plan accounts such as 401(k) and IRAs; and
- g) awards from Granting Agencies.

For the items in (a) through (g), the Board shall make the final decision on whether to accept the gift based upon a recommendation from the Minister, the appropriate staff person, the Finance Advisory Committee, the Endowment Advisory Committee when a bequest is received, or another Board Advisory Committee. After acceptance, the Board may convert non-cash gifts to cash immediately if the Board chooses to do so. Representatives of the Church will provide no tax advice to any donor.

further revised and re-affirmed April 20, 2016*

Fundraising activities other than applications for grants shall be approved and coordinated by the Board Stewardship Task Force, with attention to minimizing competition and distraction, especially for the Annual Budget Drive as the core funding source for the Church. The Minister must be notified in writing before a paid or volunteer staff member begins the process of gathering substantial information concerning the application process for a particular grant. In accordance with the policy on Global Delegation, the Minister as Head of Staff has final approval of the fundraising cycle in general and of applications for specifically identified grants.

4.6 Statements of Public Witness and Social Action

Our Congregation honors the right of individual conscience, and our members are encouraged to engage in a free and responsible search for truth and meaning. Public statements about our moral principles -- in word or deed -- can be an important part of living our faith.

We are aware, however, that our members may have different moral and political beliefs and priorities. We are also aware that statements made on behalf of our Church may affect both our members' sense of belonging and our congregation's reputation in the larger community. We therefore expect our members to observe the following policies regarding public witness.

When individuals speak in support of causes and actions which are in keeping with Unitarian Universalist principles, they do not necessarily speak for the Unitarian Universalist Church of Buffalo. In this Policy "speak" means through speech or writing, or physically appearing at marches, rallies, workshops and other similar occasions. The provisions below seek to clarify when individuals speak for themselves and when they speak on behalf of the Congregation.

4.6.1 Statements by Individual Members

Individual members may speak for themselves only and may not claim to represent the Unitarian Universalist Church of Buffalo or its ministries. In order to protect the Church's non-profit status under relevant state and federal laws, no one may represent the church as supporting or opposing either a candidate for public office or a political party, and no one may represent the church as endorsing a policy that is partisan.

4.6.1.1. Individual statements at a community gathering

Individuals at a community gathering may say that they are members of the Unitarian Universalist Church of Buffalo and may describe their roles at our congregation, state their own opinions and discuss Unitarian Universalist principles and traditions. They may not, however, commit the Unitarian Universalist Church of Buffalo to a particular position or claim to represent our congregation.

While individuals may attend rallies, demonstrations, or other community gatherings, as part of a Ministry Team of the church, they continue to be individuals rather than representatives of the congregation.

4.6.1.2 Statements by Individual Trustees and/or the Board of Trustees

One or more members of the Board of Trustees and/or the Board of Trustees as a unit may speak for the Church on positions which a General Assembly of the Unitarian Universalist Association of Congregations has approved by a recorded vote. In addition, a member of the Board of Trustees and/or the Board of Trustees as a unit may speak for the Church on positions which the Congregation in a duly called Congregational Meeting and/or the Board of Trustees as the elected representative of the Congregation have approved by a recorded vote. Examples of such positions include LGBTQ rights within the context of our being a Welcoming Congregation and a commitment to equal opportunity within the context of the Buffalo Opportunity Pledge.

All statements of public witness and social action must be compatible with our Church's mission and traditions, as well as with the principles of Unitarian Universalism. The Board and the Minister in consultation: 1) may encourage the Congregation to adopt resolutions of public witness after a time of discernment and education on specific issues; and 2) may validate collaborations with outside groups on matters of social justice that lead to statements of public witness.

4.6.1.3 Role of a social justice Ministry Team or Task Force

A social justice Ministry Team or Task Force has the primary responsibility for developing positions that may lead to public statements on behalf of the church. Any group or individual that wishes to develop a possible statement of public witness should first consult the Minister in order to determine the appropriate way to proceed. The Minister will decide whether the idea should be delegated to a social justice Ministry Team or Task Force for further development. If the Minister delegates such an idea, a social justice Ministry Team or Task Force will report the results of its discernment to the Minister. The Minister will then decide whether to bring one or more initiatives to the Board of Trustees for congregational action.

4.6.1.4 The Minister's Statements of Public Witness and Social Action

Nothing in this policy supersedes the Minister's freedom of the pulpit or her or his ability to undertake an "Action of Immediate Witness" in emergency circumstances. After such consultation with the Board as the Minister deems necessary, she or he may authorize signage on the church's property that displays the congregation's position on a social justice issue.

Affirmed by the Board of Trustees, January 18, 2017

5.0 Oversight

5.1 Cycle of Planning, Evaluation and Review

The Trustees of the Unitarian Universalist Church of Buffalo acknowledge their continuing responsibility for establishing ministry goals and evaluating programs' structural functioning. They will implement the Congregation's Mission Statement and the Statement of Outcomes by articulating an annual Vision of Ministry and Goals. The Trustees are committed to fulfilling this responsibility by establishing an annual cycle for review of: 1) their own vision and goal-setting practices; 2) the functioning of the Board's Advisory Committees and Task Forces; and 3) the functioning of the Congregation's Ministry Groups.
